EUROPE IN DIALOGUE WITH ITS OWN DIVERSITY

EIFI Seminar Series 2019

First Seminar

Philosophical thought and questions for identity in Southeastern Europe

Barcelona, January 12th, from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Is Europe able to enter in a dialogue with the diversity of its „euro-regions“ and to overcome the interests of State?

This question for another possible Europe will be discussed in this first seminar in the spirit of an intercultural social coexistence constituting the central line of the whole seminar series and starting from the present situation in Southeastern Europe.

Our invited speakers and their contributions:

Zhidas Daskalovski, Nation building, identity and liberal multiculturalism in Macedonia

Misa Djurkovic, Searching for Common Ground: Identity Issues in Serbia

Rigels Halili, Albanian identities or Albanians' identity? Discourses in the making

Ugo Vlaisavljevic, The post-imperial and post-war identity constructions of the small nations in the Balkans
