

Anthology: Andean Philosophy / Intercultural Philosophy

Remark of the author.....	4
1. «Anatopism» as cultural alienation: Dominant and dominated cultures in the Andean region of Latin America.....	5
2. Interfaith Dialogue and the Option for the Poor: Some methodological remarks .....	25
3. Theology of Hope or Hope for Theology?.....	29
4. Apu Taytaqku : Theological Implications of Andean Thought.....	41
5. Like a Rainbow or a Bunch of Flowers: Contextual theologies in a globalized world	57
6. Jesus Christ as Chakana : Outline of an Andean Christology of Liberation.....	77
7. Andean philosophy as a questioning alterity: An intercultural criticism of Western andro- and ethnocentrism.....	85
8. Religion does not redeem: Theological reflections about the role of «Religion» today .....	103
9. Proclaiming and struggling for life in plenitude: Buen Vivir (Good Living) as a new paradigm for «mission»?.....	111
10. Walking backwards to the future, facing the past: The conception of time in Andean Philosophy.....	123
11. Poverty, Migration and Eurocentrism: Challenges for a genuine European Liberation Theology in the 21st century.....	139
12. Polylogue with poor and marginalized people: Hermeneutical shifts in Intercultural Liberation Theologies .....	147
14. Indigenous theologies in Abya Yala : Its repercussions on progressive policies in Latin America.....	171
References of sources of the contributions of this anthology .....	189
About the author.....	191