

Fred Dallmayr (ed.), Dialogue and the New Cosmopolitanism. Conversations with Edward Demenchonok, (Lexington Books), Lanham/USA: Rowman & Littlefield, 2022

CONTENTS

Introduction

Fred R. Dallmayr

Part 1. Intercultural Dialogue: Theory and Practice

Chapter 1. Justice, Power, and Dialogue: Humanizing Politics

Fred R. Dallmayr

Chapter 2. Toward a Philosophy of Intercultural Dialogue in a Conflicted World

Raúl Fornet-Betancourt

Chapter 3. The Quest for Dialogue and Intercultural Philosophy

Vasily Gritsenko and Tatiana Danilchenko

Part 2. Philosophers Striving for the Recognition of Cultural Diversity and Dialogue

Chapter 4. Striving for Intercultural Philosophy: The Contribution of Russian Philosophers

Marietta T. Stepanyants

Chapter 5. Intercultural Dialogue, Critical Thinking, and Global Political Facticity

Ricardo Salas

Chapter 6. Understanding the Authentic and Universal in Latin American Philosophy: Edward Demenchonok's Intercultural Approach

Pablo Guadarrama

Chapter 7. Abya Yala as a Philosophical Place: Indigenous Philosophies and the Pending Task of the Decolonization of Philosophy

Josef Estermann

Part 3. Humans and Identity in a Culturally Diverse World

Chapter 8. Philosophical Reflections on Humans, Identity, and Intercultural Dialogue

Vladislav A. Lektorsky

Chapter 9. Sartre and Heidegger: The Controversy on Humanism and the Question of the Human

Marina F. Bykova

Chapter 10. The Voice of Religion in Intercultural Dialogue

Igor D. Dzhokhadse

Part 4. Rationality, Freedom, and Responsibility

Chapter 11. Rationality, Harmony, and Responsibility

Grigorii L. Tulchinskii

Chapter 12. Being and Process: How to “Edify” “Arab Reason” (And Any Reason at All)
Andrey V. Smirnov

Chapter 13. Occam’s Razor and Axiomatics of Human Experience: The Problem of the Reduction/Proliferation of Entities in the Contemporary Context
Mikhail N. Epstein

Part 5. Philosophy Facing World Problems

Chapter 14. The Diverse Faces of Globalization
William L. McBride

Chapter 15. Philosophers’ Contributions to the Theory and Practice of Dialogue in Facing Global Problems
Alexander N. Chumakov

Part 6. Toward a Cosmopolitan World Order of Lasting Peace and Global Justice

Chapter 16. Dialogical and Transformative Cosmopolitanism to Come
Sergei V. Akopov

Chapter 17. The Realities of the War System and the Ideal of Global Justice: The Role of Public Discourse and the Vision of Cosmopolitanism
Bill Gay

Chapter 18. In Praise of Edward Demenchonok: A Cosmopolitan Visionary
Richard Falk

Appendix. Latin American and Russian Philosophy and Literature in Dialogue: Raúl Fornet-Betancourt’s Conversation with Edward Demenchonok